ALUATION PLACE OBTAINED 25X1 ALUATION PLACE OBTAINED 25X1 TO F CONTENT CONTENT DATE PREPARED 30 Jamary 1951 TE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 30 Jamary 1951 TO 19 December 1950 and 2 January 1951, a Soviet guard Cotail of about 15 to 20 men according to a local resident, mas quartered in a temporary building, about 5 x 10 sterey, on a hill northwest of famin (H 55/2 1/2), and 1/2 km west of the Miloster Lebmin (H 53/2 1/2) relibred station where two means, 10 meters high, one with a brisis-like building from the hill is broaded between the reside to Macroinoff and Davidniche. There were two means, 10 meters high, one with a brisis-like building as the hill between the product of a brisis-like building as the hill between the product of a brisis-like building as the hill between the product of the temporary building. The two marks were intercommented by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led Commard. A double-wire telephone like was seen running bouard the northwest as far as the authorian, * 2. On 26 forember and 3 becember, two observation posts were observed in vincinalla casts and south of Lebmin, Soth of the observation posts were of the same type and were cocupied. One was approximately 500 zeters west of Resedel (H 53/2 1/2). Here, belancy-like structures were on the roof of of each of the whirchills. As anothems, should 60 to 0 meters long, was string first a red which profunded about 3 to 5 anders beyond the roof of both the millar heart to each of the observation posts are probably at observation posts. To date, in the roof which the millar heart to each of the millar observation posts are probably at observation posts. To date, it has not been destrained whether similar observation posts are probably at observation posts. To date, it has not been destrained whether similar observation posts and the content posts. To date, it has not been destrained whether similar observation posts. To date, it has not been destrained whether similar observation posts. To date, it has not been dest	A STATE OF THE STA	Approved For Release 2001/12/04 : CIA-RD	P82-00457R007000670007-8
ALUATION. PLACE OSTAINED. CONTENT. GEOGRAMED. DATE PREPARED. 10 January 1951. ENCLOSURES (No. 2 WFF). 1 - One sketch or ditto I. On 19 Secenber 1950 and 2 January 1951, a Soviet guard detail of about 15 to 20 men according to a local resident, was quartered in a temporary huilding, shout 5 x 7 users, or a hill southwast of Kamin (N 55/2 12), and 12 km west of the Klostur Lebnin (N 53/2 12) relired station. The hill is located between the reads to henceford and Darkhoids. There were two rests, 10 meters high, one with a bresst-like bundle of three or top, near the building. The field surrounding the building was formed in. A utre strung between the reads to the method of the control of the contr	and a second second	CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL	terminante de la companya de la comp Tanga a antica de la companya de la
ALUATION. PLACE OBTAINED. DATE PREPARED 30 Jamary 1951 FERENCES GES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYFE) 1 - One sketch on ditto MARKS. NAMERICA ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYFE) 1 - One sketch on ditto MARKS. NAMERICA ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYFE) 1 - One sketch on ditto I. On 19 December 1950 and 2 January 1951, a Soviet guard detail of about 15 to 20 cmm according to a local resident, mas quartered in a temporary mildlung, about 5 x 7 neters, on a hill southwast of Kamin (H 53/2 12), and 1½ has wost of the illoster Lehmin (N 53/2 12) relibroad station. The hill is located between the roads to Buccifori and Jorchoide. There were two reads, 10 meters high, one with a brush-like bundle of virce on top, near the buildling, and for lead the more containing the subtiling was forceding. The first carter were true reads at a such and command, a dealer to the temporary building. The two carters were interconnected by a wire from the case which was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahn. 2. On 25 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in which one wire set the southwestern and of the slame type and wore occupied. One was approximately 800 meters west of Readel (H 53/2 12) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kamin (H 53/2 12). Now, balcony-like structures were on the roof of both the millian next to each of the mills was a fornocal interporary building which was occupied by about 40 to 80 meters long, was strung from a rod which professed both 50 to 80 meters long, was strung from a rod which professed of the owners the southwestern and the roof of both the millian next to each of the mills was a fornocal interporary building which was occupied by about 40 to 80 meters long, was strung from a rod which professed of the Nembry-Fourth Air http. For location skitch of Osparvation posts are probably at observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts and of the Samin, see Annott, has been repeatedly reported as bolonging to metals	CONTRY_C	formany (Soviet Zone)	REPORT NO.
ALUATION. PLACE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED. 30 January 1951 FERENCES GES. 1 ENCLOSURES (No. a wwe) 1 - One sketch or ditte MARKS MARKS A contract to see a local resident, was quartered in a temporary building, shout 5 x 1 revers, or a hill postwave of Samin (N 55/2 k2) relired station. The hill is because the field surrounding the building manney hilling, and the field surrounding the building manney hilling. There were two masts, 10 actives in the read to be benefit of mild building manney hilling. The considerable showed in the field surrounding the building manney hilling to make were intercommented by a wine from the middle of which one wire branched off mid build Commark. A double-wire talephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahn. * 2. On 26 lovember and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills cast and south of Lehmin. Solt of the clear to some was the southwestern and of the village of Kamin (N 55/2 k2), Now, balcomy-like structures were on the roof of both the milliar next to each of the milling about 60 to 50 meters long, was strung from a red whigh protrained about 50 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the milliar next to each of the milling was a function. A construction of the fine of the content of the southwest of the south was a function. They were accumentated by a contraction is supplied by two sources, it is believed credible. The posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts are probably air observation posts are for location study of the Lehmin area. 1 Annex: Observation Post Scuthwest of Kamin, Lemin Area. CLASSIFICATEON FIRENCE. 1 Annex: Observation post of Kamin, Lemin Area.	ropic Ob	servation Posts in the Lehnin Area
ALUATION PLACE OSTAINED. TE OF CONTENT. TE OSTAINED. DATE PREPARED 30 January 1951 FERENCES SES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. a 1995) 1 - One sketch or ditto MARKS DURCE 1, On 19 December 1950 and 2 January 1951, a device guard detail of about 15 to 20 sen according to a local resident, was quartered in a temporary untiliting, about 5 x 7 before, on a hill nowthwest of Kanin (H 53/ 2 h2), and 52 ha west of the Kloster Lebnin (H 53/2 k2) resilved station. The hill is located botween the roads to Dacendorf and Zowthoide. There were two marts, 10 meters high, one with a bresh-like bundle of wires on top, near the building. The field surrounding the building was foncedin. A wire strung between the masts had a local-in to the temperary building. The two masts were interconnected by a mire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led conward. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahn. * 2. On 26 Hovember and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in uncimilia cast and south of Lebnin. Both of the observation posts were of the stand of the villege of about the vindrille. An antenna, about 60 to 50 meters west of Rasdal (In 53/2 k2) and 50 officer one was allie structures series of the result of the villege of about the vindrille. An antenna, about 60 to 50 meters and of the villege of about the vindrille. An antenna, about 60 to 50 meters are not one of both the milles nort to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 meet 'init the results of the converse of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 meet 'init the leaves the villege of about the vindrille. An antenna, about 60 to 50 meters and of the villege of about the vindrille. An antenna, about 60 to 50 meters are not only the villege of about 7 meters the villege of the vill
TO GETAINED DATE PREPARED 30 January 1951 FERENCES A ENCLOSURES (No. 2 WFE) 1 - One sketch or ditto MARKS Local Section of the section	(1X	PLACE ORTAINED	25X1
DATE PREPARED 30 January 1951 FERENCES GES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. a TYPE) 1 - One sketch or ditto MARKS L. Cn 19 December 1950 and 2 January 1951, a Soviet guard detail of about 15 to 20 cen according to a local readent, was quartered in a temporary building, shout 5 x 7 meters, on a bill northwest of Karin (N 53/ 2 12), and 15 to meet of the Mloster Lenham (N 53/ 2) Paralleral station. The hill is seated between the reads to Busenderf and Zortheide. There were two truly between the reads to Busenderf and Zortheide. There were two trules to meters high, one with a brush-like burlied or trins on top, make a truly a brush a brush-like burlied or viros on the casts had a local-into burlied or viros on the casts had a local-into the temperary building. The two masts were intorcommented by a tire from the middle of which one were two temperary building. The two masts were intorcommented by a tire from the middle of which one wire branched off and lod formand. A double-wire letephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahn. * 2. On 26 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in which line at and south of Lehmin. Soth of the observation posts were of the came type and were occupied. One was approximately 300 meters went of Racel (N 53/2 2) and the other one was the southwestern end of the village of Kamin (N 53/2 2). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windfulle. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which profunded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the scon of both the mills next to each of the mills was a formed-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Inst the posts are protected for the letter of the posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Tourch Air Army. For location sketch of observation posts are probably air observation posts are protected as belonging to because the substance of the location sketch of observation posts are probably air observation posts are foreith in the Lehmin area.	(1C		part was pursued sussessments have conditioned and conditional and and of conditional and and of conditional and
DURCE 1. On 19 December 1950 and 2 January 1951, a Soviet guard detail of about 15 to 20 men according to a local resident, was quartered in a temporary whilding, about 5 x 7 meters, on a hill continent of Kanin (N 53/ Z h 2), and 14 me west of the Kloster Lebmin (N 53/Z h) railiness station. The hill is located between the roads to Bucencerf and localiness there were two meats, 10 meters thigh, one with a brush-like bundle of wires on top, near the builting. The field surrounding the building was fenced in. A wire strung between the meats had a local in to the temporary building. The two meats were intercommeted by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led Commard. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahn. ? 2. On 26 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills cast and south of Lebmin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 500 meters west of Raceld (N 53/Z h2) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kanin (N 53/Z h2). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windfulls. An entenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit There were two contry posts of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A Comment.* The presence of the observation posts is reported for the intertains. Since the information is supplied by two sources, it is believed credible. The observation posts are probably at robservation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Yount hir Army. For location skytch of observation posts are probably at robservation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Founth hir Army. For location skytch of observation post southwest of Kamin, see Annox.  CLASSIFICATION FULL TITLE* Decement			30 January 1951
DURCE 1. On 19 December 1950 and 2 Jenuary 1951, a Soviet guard detail of about 15 to 20 men according to a local resident, was quartered in a tergorary building, about 5 x 7 meters, on a hill southwest of Kardn (8 53/ 1 h2), and 1½ ha west of the Kloster Lohmin (8 53/2 h2) railroad station. The hill is Located botween the roads to Buserford and Bortheide. There were two masts, 10 meters high, one with a brush-like bundle of wirce on top, near the fulleding. The two masts, 10 meters high, one with a brush-like bundle of wirce on top, near the fulleding. The two masts had a load-in to the temporary building. The two masts were intercommented by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and lad dommand. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahm. * 2. On 26 November and 3 Becamber, two observation posts were observed in unindfulls cast and south of Lehmin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 300 meters west of Rasedal (8 53/% L2) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Eanin (8 53/2 h2). New, belony-like structures were on the roofs of Both the millow next to each of the mills was affected in temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of unit There were two controls of the windralls. An entenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the millow next to each of the mills was a forcod-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of unit believed credible. The observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts. To caster beyond has been repeatedly reported as belonging to because the summand of the Thenty-Tourath Air Army. For location skytch of observation post southwest			(ED
DURCE 1. On 19 December 1950 and 2 January 1951, a Soviet guard Cetail of about 15 to 20 men according to a local recident, was quartered in a temporary building, shout 5 x 7 meters, on a hill northwost of Kanin (N 53/2 k2), and 18 km west of the Klester Lohmin (N 53/2 k2) reilroad station. The hill is located between the roads to Bucerdorf and Corriboide. There were two masts, 10 meters high, one with a brush-like bundle of wires on top, near the building. The field surrounding the building was foncedin. A wire strung between the meats had a load-in to the temperary building. The two masts were interconnected by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led Command. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahn. * 2. On 26 Hovember and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills cast and south of Lehmin. Solth of the observation posts were of the same type and wore coupied. One was approximately 300 meters west of Raedel (N 53/2 k2) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the vimiliage of Kanin (N 53/2 k2). New, balcomy-like structures were not the roads of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was atrung from a red which protraided about 3 to 5 meters beyond the road of both the mills# next to each of the mills was a fouced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 50 men of Finit was a fouced in the road of both the mills# next to each of the mills was a fouced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 50 men of Finit was a fouced in the road of both the mills# next to each of the mills was a fouced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 50 men of Finit was a fouced in the road of both the mills# next to each of the mills was a fouced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 50 men of Finit was believed credible. The observation posts are grobably air observation posts are fait-inuted over the ontire area of the fundry-fourth Air Amy-For location sketched ov	REFERENCES	•
DURCE 1. On 19 December 1950 and 2 January 1951, a Soviet guard detail of about 15 to 20 men according to a local resident, was quartered in a temporary building, shout 5 x 7 meters, on a hill nowthwest of Kanin (% 53/2 ½ ½), and 13 km west of the Electer Lehmin (% 53/2 ½) realroad station. The hill is located between the roads to Emersion and Derikoide. There were two masts, 10 meters high, one with a trust-like bundle of wires on top, near the building. The field surrounding the building was fencedin. A wire strung between the masts had a local-in to the temporary building. The two masts were interconnected by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led Command. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahn. * 2. On 26 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills cast and south of Lehmin. Soth of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 800 meters west of Rasid (% 53/2 ½) and the other one was at this outhwestorn end of the village of Kenin (% 53/2 ½). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, shout 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills* next to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 40 men of 'init mere were two sontry poets of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A  Doment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the Institute over the entire area of the Trenty-Fourth Air Army. For location skitch of Observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Trenty-Fourth Air Army. For location skitch of Observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Trenty-Fourth Air Army. For location skitch of Observation post southwest of Kanin, see Armous. Annex: Observation Post Scuthwest of Kanin, Lemin Area. Decement Medical Class Medical Clas	PAGES	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) 1 - CHE S	Reven or Cloto
1. On 19 December 1950 and 2 January 1951, a Soviet guard detail of about 15 to 20 men according to a local resident, was quartered in a temporary building, about 5 x 7 meters, on a hill southwest of Kanin (N 53/ 2 12), and 12 km west of the Rioster Lebmin (N 53/2 12) railroad station. The hill is located between the roads to Bucerdorf and Bortheide. There were two masts, 10 meters high, one with a trush-like builded of wires on top, near the building. The field surrounding the building was foncedin. A wire strung between the masts had a load—in to the temporary building. The two masts were interconnected by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led command. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobalm.* 2. On 26 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills cast and south of Lehmin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were coupied. One was approximately 800 netters west of Raedel (N 53/2 12) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kanin (N 53/2 12). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters been determined by dogs. A Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the liter time. These were two southy posts of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the liter time. The presence of the observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts. In date, then observation posts withwest of Kanin, see Annex, has been repeatedly reported as belonging to the temporary observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex, has been repeatedly reporte	REMARKS	C. DINOMINIMATE MINECHAL HIMMAN ACTION ACTION CONTROL INSTITUTE ACTIONS OF BOUNDATION CONTROL IN THE ACTION
1. On 19 December 1950 and 2 January 1951, a Soviet guard detail of about 15 to 20 men according to a local resident, was quartered in a temporary building, shout 5 x 7 meters, on a hill southwest of Kamin (N 53/ 1/2), and 1/2 km west of the Rioster Lohmin (N 55/2 1/2) railroad station. The hill is located between the roads to Bucerdorf and Bortheide. There were two meats, 10 meters high, one with a brush-like build of wires on top, near the building. The field surrounding the building was foncedin. A wire strung between the mests had a local—in to the temporary building. The two meats were interconnected by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led Command. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobalm. * 2. On 26 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills cast and south of Lehmin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 300 meters west of Readel (N 53/2 1/2) and the other one was at the southwestern and of the village of Kamin (N 53/2 1/2). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters were long meters and the mills were accompanied by dogs. A Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the liket time. These were two southry posts of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the liket time. The observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts. In the Lehmin area. 1 Annex: Obse
1. On 19 December 1950 and 2 January 1951, a Soviet guard detail of about 15 to 20 men according to a local resident, was quartered in a temporary building, about 5 x 7 meters, on a hill southwest of Kanin (N 53/ 2 12), and 12 km west of the Rioster Lebmin (N 53/2 12) railroad station. The hill is located between the roads to Bucerdorf and Bortheide. There were two masts, 10 meters high, one with a trush-like builded of wires on top, near the building. The field surrounding the building was foncedin. A wire strung between the masts had a load—in to the temporary building. The two masts were interconnected by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led command. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobalm.* 2. On 26 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills cast and south of Lehmin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were coupied. One was approximately 800 netters west of Raedel (N 53/2 12) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kanin (N 53/2 12). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters been determined by dogs. A Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the liter time. These were two southy posts of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the liter time. The presence of the observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts. In date, then observation posts withwest of Kanin, see Annex, has been repeatedly reported as belonging to the temporary observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex, has been repeatedly reporte	Contraction Contraction Contraction Assessment
1. On 19 December 1950 and 2 January 1951, a Soviet guard detail of about 15 to 20 men according to a local resident, was quartered in a temporary building, about 5 x 7 meters, on a hill continuest of Karin (N 55/ Z h2), and 1½ km west of the floster Lehnin (N 55/ Z h2) relificated station. The hill is located between the roads to Duccriforf and Sorthcide. There were two masts, 10 meters high, one with a krush-like bundle of wires on top, near the building. The field surrounding the building was fencedin, A wire strung between the measts had a local-in to the temporary building. The two masts were interconnected by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led Gowmard. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahn. 2. On 26 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills cast and south of Lehnin. Soth of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 300 meters west of Readel (N 53/Z L2) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kanin (N 53/Z h2). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windmills. As antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills* next to each of the mills was a fonced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 80 men of Unit There were two contry poets of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A  Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the Interporary building which was occupied by about 80 men of Unit There were two contry poets of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A  Comment. The presence of the observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts. The location skytch of observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex. A  Comment. Comment. The beautiful area. 1 Anne	K1X
1. On 19 December 1950 and 2 January 1951, a Soviet guard detail of about 15 to 20 men according to a local resident, was guartered in a temporary building, about 5 x 7 meters, on a hill continent of the fill of the temporary building, about 5 x 7 meters, on a hill continent of the fill of the fill is located between the roads to Duccriforf and Borthcode. There were two masts, 10 meters high, one with a truesh-like bundle of whros on top, near the building. The field surrounding the building was foncedin, A wire strung between the measts had a local-in to the temporary building. The two masts were interconnected by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led downward. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobalm. 2. On 26 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills cast and south of Lehmin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 300 meters west of Readel (N 53/Z L2) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kanin (N 53/Z h2). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windmills. As antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the millism next to each of the mills was a fonced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 80 men of init the proporary building which was occupied by about 80 men of init the responsibility of the millism cast in supplied by two sources, it is believed credible. The observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined wether similar observation posts. To date, it has not been determined wether similar observation posts. The cation skytch of observation post are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined wether similar observation posts. The cation skytch of observation post southwest of Kamin, see Annox. A  Comment. The presence of the observation post		ARRONDATIONS CONTROLLED TO THE CONTROL CONTROL TO THE ARRONDATION OF THE CONTROL TO THE ARRONDATION OF THE ARRONDATION OF THE	CM: UEL. T. DERBERN HOLMSTON HOLMSTONE STEELE HER STEELEN HOLMSTONE HER STEELE HOLMSTONE ST
15 to 20 men according to a local resident, was quartered in a temporary building, about 5 x 7 meters, on a hill southwest of Kanin (N 53/2 12), and 1½ km west of the Kloster Lehmin (N 53/2 12) railroad station. The hill is located between the roads to Busenderf and Borkheide. There were two masts, 10 meters high, one with a brush-like bundle of wiros on top, near the building. The field surrounding the building was fenceding. The two masts were intercommeted by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led Gowmard. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahn.* 2. Om 26 November and 3 December; two observation posts were observed in windmills cast and south of Lehmin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 300 meters west of Readel (N 53/2 12) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kanin (N 53/2 12). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills mext to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of "mit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of "mit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of "mit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of "mit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of "mit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of "mit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of "mit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of "mit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of "mit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of "mit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of "mit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of "mit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of "mit temporary building which was occupied	SOURCE
15 to 20 men according to a local resident, was quartered in a temporary building, about 5 x 7 meters, on a hill southwest of Kamin (N 53/2 h2), and 1½ km west of the Kloster Lehmin (N 53/2 h2) railroad station. The hill is located between the roads to Busenderf and Borkheide. There were two masks, 10 meters high, one with a brush-like bundle of wiros on top, near the building. The field surrounding the building was fencedin. A wire strung between the masts had a load-in to the temporary building. The two masts were interconnected by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led downward. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahn. * 2. Om 26 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills cast and south of Lehmin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were cocupied. One was approximately 300 meters west of Readol (N 53/2 k2) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kamin (N 53/2 k2). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills* next to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of limit. There were two sontry posts of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A        	า	On 10 December 1050 and 2 January 1051, a	Sowiet mand detail of about
The hill is located botween the roads to Busenderf and Cornheide. There were two masts, 10 meters high, one with a brush-like bundle of wiros on top, near the building. The field surrounding the building was fencedin. A wire strung between the casts had a locad-in to the temporary building. The two masts were interconnected by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led Command. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahn. * 2. On 26 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills east and south of Lehnin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 800 meters west of Readel (N 53/Z 12) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kanin (N 53/Z 12). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills* next to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit There were two sontry posts of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A  Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the Institute. Since the information is supplied by two sources, it is believed credible. The observation posts are probably air observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. For location sketch of observation posts are probably air observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. For location sketch of observation posts are probably reported as belonging to an air observation post in the Lehnin area. 1 Annex: Observation Post Scuthwest of Kanin, Lennin Area.   CLASSIFICATION FURTHER             	.1.0	15 to 20 men according to a local resident	, was quartered in a tempo-
The hill is located botween the roads to BuschCorf and Borthcide. There were two masts, 10 meters high, one with a brush-like bundle of wiros on top, near the building. The field surrounding the building was fonceding. The two masts were interconnected by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led Commard. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobann. * 2. Om 26 Hovember and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills cast and south of Lehnin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 300 meters west of Raedel (N 53/Z 12) and the other one was at the southwestern and of the village of Kanin (N 53/Z 12). New, belony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills* mext to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary by department of U		rary building, about 5 x 7 meters, on a hi	11 southwest of Kanin (N 53/
top, near the building. The field surrounding the building was forceding. A wire strung between the meats had a load-in to the temporary building. The two masts were interconnected by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led command. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahn. * 2. Om 26 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills cast and south of Lehmin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 300 meters west of Raedel (N 53/2 k2) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kanin (N 55/2 k2). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills* next to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit  There were two soutry posts of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A  Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the interest of the information is supplied by two sources, it is believed credible. The observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. For location shoth of observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex. A * Comment. A  Comment. * Observation Post Scuthwest of Kanin, Lennin Area. * * Observation Post Scuthwest of Kanin, Lennin Area. * * Observation Post Scuthwest of Kanin, Lennin Area. * * Declassifed Class. Classifed Class. Charged Ie. Is a Comment No. Classifed Class. Charged Ie. In Class. Classifed Cla		The hill is located between the roads to E	Busendorf and Borkheide. There in. A wire strung between the masts had a lead-in to the temperary building. The two masts were interconnected by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led downward. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahn. * 2. Om 26 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills east and south of Lehmin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 300 meters west of Raedel (N 53/2 L2) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kanin (N 53/2 L2). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, sboth 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills* next to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit There were two sontry posts of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the lirest time. Since the information is supplied by two sources, it is believed credible. The observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. For location sketch of observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex. A *Comment. A *Comment. *C		were two masts, 10 meters high, one with a	brush-like bundle of wiros on ding. The two masts were interconnected by a wire from the middle of which one wire branched off and led downward. A double-wire telephone line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobalm. * 2. Om 26 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills cast and south of Lelmin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 800 meters west of Raedel (N 53/2 12) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kanin (N 53/2 12). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills* next to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary vere accompanied by dogs. A  Comment. The presence of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A  Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the livest time. Since the information is supplied by two sources, it is believed credible. The observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined wiether similar observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. For location sketch of observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex. A  Comment. The presence of the beaution as belonging to the leasn of the twenty-Fourth Air Army. It is some posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. The presence	•	in. A wire strung between the masts had a	cling the building was rended- clead-in to the temporary buil-line was seen running toward the northwest as far as the autobahn. * 2. Om 26 November and 3 December, two observation posts were observed in windmills east and south of Lehnin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 300 meters west of Raedel (N 53/2 L2) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kanin (N 53/2 L2). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windmills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 2 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills* next to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit  There were two sentry posts of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A  Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the Inst time. Since the information is supplied by two sources, it is believed credible. The observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. For location sketch of observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annox. A  Comment. The presence of the observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annox. A  Comment. The presence of the observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annox. I Annex: Observation Post Southwest of Kanin, Lennin Area.  CLASSIFICATION FIRST Southwest of Kanin, Lennin Area.  Decument No.		ding. The two masts were interconnected b	y a wire from the middle of windmills cast and south of Lehnin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 800 meters west of Readel (N 53/Z 12) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kanin (N 53/Z 12). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windrills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a rcd which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills* next to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit the There were two sontry posts of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the livest cime. Since the information is supplied by two sources, it is believed credible. The observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. For location sketch of observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex. A Comment. As been repeatedly reported as belonging to an air observation post in the Lehnin area. Determine the Change in Class. Determined the Change in Class. Change I I is I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I		tine was seen running toward the northwest	arc. A double-wire telephone as far as the autobahn. *
windmills cast and south of Lehnin. Both of the observation posts were of the same type and were occupied. One was approximately 800 meters west of Readel (N 53/Z 12) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kanin (N 53/Z 12). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windrills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a rcd which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills* next to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit the There were two sontry posts of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the livest cime. Since the information is supplied by two sources, it is believed credible. The observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. For location sketch of observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex. A Comment. As been repeatedly reported as belonging to an air observation post in the Lehnin area. Determine the Change in Class. Determined the Change in Class. Change I I is I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I	2.	Om 26 Hovember and 3 December two observa	ation posts were observed in west of Raedel (N 53/Z 12) and the other one was at the southwestern end of the village of Kanin (N 53/Z 12). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windrills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills* next to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied about 3 to 5 meters beyond the remporary building which was a fenced-in, was a fenced-in, who was a fenced-in, when was a fenced-in, who was a fenced-in, who was a fenced-in, when was a fence	20	windmills east and south of Lehnin. Both	of the observation posts were of the village of Kanin (N 53/2 h2). New, balcony-like structures were on the roofs of each of the windrills. An antenna, about 60 to 80 meters long, was strung from a rcd which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills* next to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about h0 men of Unit temporary by about h0 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about h0 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about h0 men of Unit temporary building which was occupied by about h0 me		of the same type and were occupied. One wast of Raedel (N 53/2 12) and the other	one was at the southwestern end long, was strung from a red which protruded about 3 to 5 meters beyond the roof of both the mills were accompanied by the mills was a fenced—in, temporary building which was occupied by about 40 men of Unit There were two sentry posts of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A Comment.* The presence of the observation posts is reported for the Institute. Since the information is supplied by two sources, it is believed credible. The observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty—Fourth Air Army. For location sketch of observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex. Comment.* The presence of the observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty—Fourth Air Army. For location sketch of observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex. 		of the village of Kanin (N 53/Z 42). New	, balcony-like structures were the roof of both the mills* next to each of the mills was a fenced-in, temporary building which was occupied by about 10 men of Unit There were two sentry posts of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the Tirst time. Since the information is supplied by two sources, it is believed credible. The observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. For location sketch of observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex. A Comment. A Comment. Comment. A Comment. Comment.		on the roofs of each of the windrills. A	in antenna, about 60 to 80 meters led about 3 to 5 meters beyond 25X1
There were two sentry posts of two men each, who were blue epaulets. They were accompanied by dogs. A  Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the lifet time. Since the information is supplied by two sources, it is believed credible. The observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. For location sketch of observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex. A  Comment.		the roof of both the mills next to each	of the mills was a fenced-in,
A  Comment. The presence of the observation posts is reported for the lirst time. Since the information is supplied by two sources, it is believed credible. The observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. For location sketch of observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex. A  Comment.		temporary building which was occupied by	about 40 men of Unit
Deciment Reservation Post Southwest of Kanin, Lennin Area. CLASSIFICATION FORTAL Lennin Area. Lennin Area. CLASSIFICATION FORTAL Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Lennin Area. CLASSIFICATION FORTAL Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Deciment Reservation Lennin Area. Deciment Reservation Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Deciment Reservation Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Deciment Reservation Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Deciment Reservation Lennin Area.			, and the second
Deciment Reservation Post Southwest of Kanin, Lennin Area. CLASSIFICATION FORTAL Lennin Area. Lennin Area. CLASSIFICATION FORTAL Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Lennin Area. CLASSIFICATION FORTAL Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Deciment Reservation Lennin Area. Deciment Reservation Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Deciment Reservation Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Deciment Reservation Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Lennin Area. Deciment Reservation Lennin Area.		· ·
believed credible. The observation posts are probably air observation posts. To date, it has not been determined whether similar observation posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. For location sketch of observation post southwest of Kamin, see Annex. A  Comment.	(1A posts are distributed over the entire area of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army. For location sketch of observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex. A  Comment. has been repeatedly reported as belonging to an air observation post in the Lehnin area. 1 Annex: Observation Post Southwest of Kanin, Lennin Area. CLASSIFICATION FOR Southwest of Kanin, Lennin Area. Decument Me		believed credible. The observation posts	are probably air observation
For location sketch of observation post southwest of Kanin, see Annex. A  Comment. has been repeatedly reported as belonging to an air observation post in the Lehnin area. 1 Annex: Observation Post Southwest of Kanin, Lennin Area. CLASSIFICATION FOR THE Change in Class. Declassifed Class. Charged To: IS S CO		posts. To date, it has not been determine	ned whether similar observation an air observation post in the Lehnin aroa. 1 Annex: Observation Post Southwest of Kanin, Lonnin Area. Document No	(1A	For location sketch of observation post a	southwest of Kanin, see Annex.
1 Annex: Observation Post Southwest of Kanin, Lonnin Area. Decument No	(1A
CLASSIFICATION FIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION FIDENTIAL		-
CLASSIFICATION FIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION FIDENTIAL Declassified Class. Charge of To: TS S (C)
	·V.	^
	Lo	· CLASSIFICATION FIDENTIAL
Auth · Na 75.2		LIVIAL	Clars. Changed To: TS S (D)
1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1		•	Auth.: 48 70-2 /27 Rv:008